CONCERNED CITIZENS OF CURRY COUNTY & CLOVIS MUNICIPAL SCHOOLS

Dr. Rhonda Seidenwurm, Superintendent of Schools, and G.C. Ross, in-coming Interim Superintendent, met Friday afternoon with the spokespersons for the Concerned Citizens of Curry County (CCCC), David Briseno, Johnny Chavez, and Selmus Price to discuss concerns expressed by the CCCC. After an honest and frank discussion of the issues, both Clovis Municipal Schools and the CCCC believe that these were fruitful conversations. While the two groups have agreed to disagree on some issues of how best to reach our goals, we believe that everyone involved has the best interest of our students at heart.

Both groups believe that it is in the best interest of our students to move forward from here, and to keep the lines of communication open as issues arise that are of concern in the community.

The mission of the Clovis Municipal Schools, an alliance highly committed to educational excellence, is to equip each student with the knowledge and skills needed for a productive life of creative thinking, continuous learning, and exemplary character through challenging and engaging learning experiences led by a dedicated, unified team in vital partnership with family, church, and community.
